general ticket offices of the railroad administration at Los Angeles today when the large room was crowded by would-be patrons, while hundreds more struggled on the sidewalks to get near the door, according to reports received here. Order was quickly obtained. The ticket office will remain open all day tomorrow and Monday, which is a holiday, it is announced.

Train service between San Francisco bay and Los Angeles was restored today after a week's interruption, due to a spontaneous strike in sympathy with Pacific Electric employees in the south.

The departure from Oakland at 8:30 this morning of a valley route train for Los Angeles marked the first attempt to run a train through from this side of the bay since last Saturday.

Other trains will leave Oakland at 4:30 and 5:30 this afternoon for the southern city.

DOORS SWING OPEN AT BIG STATE FAIR

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30.—California's sixty-fifth annual State Fair swung open its doors this morning. The exposition will not close until September 9, which will make it an eleven-day fair instead of the usual seven-day fair.

Although many of the exhibitors were delayed in getting their exhibits in shape because of the railroad strike, which held up shipments, Charles W. Paine, secretary of the State Agricultural Society, declared that all exhibits were ready for today's opening.

In the mammoth new $300,000 agricultural pavilion fifteen counties are exhibiting their products. This will be the largest number that has shown at the fair for many years. All the exhibits in the new building are absolutely new and in many cases unique. Yolo county, which has won first prize for the past three years, is out again to repeat. The county has prepared a larger and more elaborate exhibit than ever before. The same is true of the other fourteen counties.

As in past years, one of the big features of the fair is the livestock. This year's showing of pure breeds, it is declared, is the finest ever gathered.

One of the attractions of the livestock exhibit is Sensation Junior, said to be the largest hog in the world. The mammoth animal is a Duroc-Jersey boar from the Diamond Bar ranch, near Los Angeles. He is a yearling, is 29 1/2 inches in height, 6 feet from the eyes to the root of his tail, 65 inches heart girth and weighs 1000 pounds.

A four hundred foot tent is required to house the hundreds of makes of late model automobiles that are exhibited, and 6,000 square feet of the fair grounds has been taken up by the tractor and farm implement exhibitors.

Two battle scarred 155-mm guns that did noble work for the Americans in the Meuse, Argonne and Belleau Wood battles are exhibited by units of the 1st Coast Artillery Corps from Fort Winfield Scott. Old Dutch Cleanser, one of the guns, is shown in firing position with the camouflage all but concealing her.

On the daily program will be harness and running races, truck riding, roping and wild horse riding by cowboys, stunts by army aviators from Mather Field and other features.

Indictments Asked for Chicago Brewers

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Chicago's biggest brewers are to be made the target of indictments when Assistant District Attorney Glass is now preparing and which he will file in the Federal Court early. All officers of the brewing companies which the Government contends have been violating the law through the manufacture of beer with more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol will be named. Evidence against them will be carried before the Federal Grand Jury and their indictment will be sought. The beer itself will be seized by Federal officers as one of the first steps in the Government's wholesale prosecution here of all violators of the war-time prohibition law.

EASTBAY SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Worden Bethothed to Robert Christy

Eighty guests assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worden this afternoon were apprised of the betrothal of the hostess, Miss Frances Worden, who entered at tea in compliment to Mrs. Philip Gier, a recent bride, formerly Miss Ruth Kelsey of Berkeley. The betrothal cards presented the guests by little Miss Betty Ransome, daughter of the Wallace Ransomes, bore the names of Miss Worden and Robert Edward Christy of Alameda. Miss Worden was assisted by her mother, a group of intimate friends in receiving the guests.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Miss Heil's school, and one of the attractive young women of the debutante set.

Robert Christy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Christy of Alameda. He is a University of California graduate and member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He will not receive his discharge from the United States navy until after Christmas, and is now a junior lieutenant in rank. No date has been set for the wedding.

WILSON TO SPEAK HERE SEPT. 18TH

President Wilson will arrive on San Francisco bay Wednesday morning, September 17, at 9 o'clock, and will depart at 10 the following evening. His 37-hour absence will be marked by two principal addresses, at the Exposition auditorium in San Francisco Wednesday afternoon and at the Oakland Municipal auditorium or the Greek theater in Berkeley Thursday afternoon.

These are the latest definite announcements in connection with the President's visit in his fight for adoption of the peace treaty. Gavin McNab, chairman of the reception committee in San Francisco, received a telegram from Secretary J. P. Tully last night, asking that the program for the President be submitted at once.

The message asked for details regarding the indoor address planned for San Francisco.

It is of course understood that the meeting is to be non-partisan in character, "tamely wired."

He advised the committee that the President's party will consist of Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tully, Rear Admiral Grayson, the President's physician, Charles L. Swen, Gilbert I. Close, Warren F. Johnson and Lt. Conrad P. Johnson, stenographers, E. W. Smithers, secret service operatives, two messengers and a maid, and 27 representatives of the press and photographers.

McNab announced that the "human element" will be introduced into the President's visit for the first time on any tour here of the nation's chief executive.

"We are trying to provide for him some leisure and amusement, and avoid the laying out of a strenuous program," said McNab.

Walker, secretary of the exchange, sent the following telegram to Congressman Arthur J. Elston last night.

"Kindly inform President Woodrow Wilson that 400,000 residents of Alameda county, California, extend to him a cordial invitation to deliver an address in the banner county of California."

Walker said that the invitation was sent on behalf of the citizens of the community generally.

This Farmer Literally Grows His Own Coin

HARRISBURG, Aug. 30.—Most anyone with an ordinary knowledge of agriculture can raise potatoes, but it remained for Miles D. Fry of this city to grow money—read honest-to-goodness currency—on potato plants. Fry has a garden just back of his home. Several days ago he brushed the dirt away from one of the stalks "to see how the potatoes were doing," and in the process he found a quarter, exactly like the "two bit" peace that Uncle Sam coins.

Fry believes that had he let the vine grow he would have had a crop of dollar bills by fall.

PROBLEMS OF THE WORKING GIRL

JANE DIXON

GIRL, USHER HUMAN, TOO—DID YOU KNOW IT? AND SHE FALLS IN LOVE WITH THE HERO, BUT THE TRAMP DRUMMER IS THE LUCKY MAN.

Why hasn't some one written a play about the girl usher?

They pick on all other kinds of working girls, these authors, yet they never give the girl usher a tumble.

I guess they've overlooked us entirely in dishing up their romances.

For quite some time now I have picked theatergoers down under and seem to find that they did not reach the other fellow's space.

Let's be like the usher. You can't be around it all the time without catching the fever.

Here is a confession, a true one. I know one usher of the theater who has fallen in love with actors playing heroes in the theaters where the girls work.

The usher and these silent crushes were all over a while ago. I said, "That's the first thing you know the show would go on the road and we'd have a fair and exacting of a showman."

There'd be a leading role in the new show which would start in the new town. The usher would be the first to see the show.

ORIGINAL SPOTLIGHT BARY. I don't know what he's gotten into. I saw him in the theater every night for weeks.

THE PARLING AND HE NEVER KNOWS around the front of the theater as well as back stage?

There's a boy who plays the trumpet in the orchestra. I wouldn't trade for John Tarver's, no, nor for Archibald Astor's.

The wedding dress is to be gray, with white lace at the neck and waist.

Author of "Scented Fear," and "Wrapped in Clay."

But, in the splendid surge of a new emotion, he had forgotten all about Madame Gueselin, had dismissed the whole affair from his thoughts. For love had come to him, real love. Love for Marie Parmentier, Judge Ebenezer Parmentier's only daughter, the little blond playmate of his kindergarten and school days.

He had not told her about what had passed between him and Madame Gueselin, not that he had tried to hide it from her, but rather because, in his present decent man's reasoning, he had not considered it fair to tell her the truth.

He had known about it—she must have known, since Sumterville was a small, gossipy place—she had never let on. For being a woman, rather than in human things, she had believed in leaving well enough alone until the issue was forced on her.

"Yes, dear," she had said, when he had stammered forth the tale of his love, and she had said, "You—oh, gladly, gladly!"

And she had made him promise to keep his temper under control. "I am afraid of it," she had said.

"Afraid?" Why, dear, I would not hurt you for all the world.

"I am not afraid for myself, but for you," I had said, "I just feel that some day I'll get you into trouble."

She had promised, had frequently broken his promise, had always been promptly scolded, and as promptly forgiven—until last night.

Last night, George, I slipped the engagement ring from her finger, and had told him that they had come to the parting of the ways.

Later, typically he said to him, "I had been a fitting sort of wind-up to the maze of twisted, fantastic happenings of the preceding twelve hours, and he went over them in his mind, to do with them, while he smoked his after-breakfast cigarette.

Not that, at first glance, there was any actual reason for coming to the different happenings of one another; but it was perhaps the result of this scientific training which caused him to look for these connecting links in the logical links in all "vents of life."

There had been, first of all, the strange affair of the lock on his laboratory door, and the business associate who invited him to luncheon with him, there was nothing strange about that.

The old friend may want to talk of old times, and the business associate may be lonely or he may have to eat alone or he may want to pump you about some one else's business affairs and think this is a good way to get a chance to do it.

When a perfect stranger asks you to let him pay for your luncheon, you would do very well, indeed, to wonder why.

How are you going to pay him back? He will be under obligations to him? How do you

Winifred Black FOLKS AND THINGS

Writes about

Dear Winifred Black: Won't you please write an article on self-consciousness? I do so badly need your advice.

As I am in moderate circumstances, I cannot afford to purchase a new dress. I am very homesick, and I am sure nothing looks "nice" on me.

I am a typist, and each day when I go to lunch, several young men flirt with me. I cannot tell why. I am decidedly homesick. As you know, I have no home in it. I see only the money I am saving. No invitation has yet been accepted. I do not know what to do.

When I walk along the avenue these men ask me to lunch with them. I wonder what these people are staring at. I wonder why they are staring at me. I wonder if they are really looking for me. I wonder if they are really looking for me.

Somehow or other I cannot conquer my thoughts. They get the best of me every time.

If you take notice of this letter and write an article on it, I will be very grateful. You have helped so many young girls that I wanted to tell my turn. Please, dear Winifred Black, answer this. Sincerely in need of advice.

FLORENCE.

CONSIDER YOURSELF.

Yes, my dear, I will write an article on self-consciousness. I couldn't help it, after reading this letter of yours.

Honestly, now, do you think you are so "very homesick"? How is it, do you suppose, that these young men annoy you so terribly by trying to flirt with you?

Staring at you? Why, your poor child, you're staring at them!

All probability, that these young men annoy you so terribly by trying to flirt with you?

Staring at you? Why, your poor child, you're staring at them!

TRIBUNE DAILY ALMANAC

AUGUST THIRTY.

This day, 1781, the French fleet arrived in Chesapeake Bay to help America. One day a French sailor tried to bite a Yankee shopkeeper for profiteering on him. One year later, August 30, 1782, a preliminary treaty of peace was signed with Britain, who had long since tired of trying to spank its grand child. This day, 1862, Battle of Manassas or Second Bull Run, ended. In Argentina and Peru, they're celebrating Santa Rosa de Lima. Ask the TRIBUNE, George P. Hunt, composer of "Battle Cry of Freedom" and "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," born, 1820.

SOOTHE THE SAVAGE BEAST. Oakland Den, International Association of Lions clubs, will lunch with the secretary of the navy at the Hotel Oakland, Wednesday. Daniels in the house den, eh?

SPEAKING OF ERUDITION. Dear Almanac: I understand that a tramp's college has been opened in an eastern state to teach weary Willies all the new stunts in roughing it. "Boys, eh? Yours educationally, D. S. C.

BAD FOR OUR CONGRESSMEN. Pickets are nowhere in evidence at the eastern fence factory, where some of the men have walked from their posts.

O, SLEEP IT IS A BLESSED THING. Many U. C. students complain that they have no place to sleep. Pshaw! In Almanac's day, they used to slumber during classes. There's no more scolding rathly than the drone of some professors' voices.

NAUGHTYCAL NOTES. Sailors aboard the dreadnaught, Idaho, won great wads of money not long ago when they measured and found their boat longer than the New Mexico or Mississippi—by one inch. Some people will go to great lengths to prove that they're right.

INTRODUCTIONS DISCOURAGED. A lucky man. He keeps a flask. Upon his hip.

SH! WHISPER IT LOW, ADOLPH. The city council has just passed an ordinance, making it a high crime and misdemeanor to tell risqué yarns in public places. What would have happened to Rabelais, Dostoevsky and Balzac if their city fathers had been vigorous? Collected in Standard Oil, no doubt.

RAIL BOARD WORKERS AND MAIL CARRIERS are usually well posted men. And that's all of that. H. M. L.

THE "UGLY" GIRL. "Ugly-looking girls!" So they have real sweethearts, have they, and you have none, for all your great interest in such affairs?

Did it ever occur to you, my dear girl, that brains and character and charm and unaffected goodness and sweet modesty have a power of their own? All men are attracted by a pretty face, of course, but beauty is not the only thing that makes men fall in love.

Why don't you stop thinking about yourself for a few minutes and think about somebody else for a change? You are a very interesting person, of course, but there are others—there really are, you know.

This is a great, big, joyous, friendly, generous, happy, miserable, discouraged, hopeful world full of happy, wretched, desperate, worried, ambitious, human beings.

Every one of them trying to do something, either for herself or him or for somebody else.

And, whisper—the ones who are doing things for other people are the only ones who are in the least even and partly happy.

You'll never be happy in the world if you go on thinking so much about yourself.

Who's the girl next to you at the office? What kind of a girl is she? Who does she live with at home? Is she happy or unhappy? Is she working about her work, and is there some one at home dependent on her? Can't you help her some way?

THEN FORGET YOURSELF. How about your little sister at home? Isn't she the problems of her own? Can't you make life a little easier for her, some way?

And your mother—people don't stop wishing they could be happy just because they're 40 years old—think up something nice to do for mother, if it's only something pleasant to say to her.

Do you know the office boys? How old are they? Are they ambitious? Their feet on the first rung of the ladder, which looks to them as if it led so high up and up and up? Do you ever take any interest in them at all?

Why, my dear, you're living right in the midst of tragedy and comedy and—there, day in and day out, and you're missing it all, just because you think about yourself all the time.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

MADELE GARRISON

Curiosity is not one of my besetting sins, but I must confess that as I walked home from Mrs. Durkee's there was but one thought in my mind, and that an overwhelming one: to catch a glimpse of the man who had thrown so much mystery about their meeting of her house.

For her description of the man she had seen told exactly with the appearance of the foreigner, real or pretended, whom I had seen in a last text to mine during a blockade of Fifth avenue, and in whose eyes, I was sure I had seen a glance of startled recognition.

Mrs. Durkee had said that the man had told her he had with him his last night's dinner, but I was certain I had seen in the taxi, the figure which had raised itself evidently to look at me, and had been back with every evidence of quick alarm upon the part of the first man.

It was a preposterous thing, of course, that any one who knew me should have been observed to be in the house next mine, but I was certain I had seen in the taxi, the figure which had raised itself evidently to look at me, and had been back with every evidence of quick alarm upon the part of the first man.

There might be a very real menace in the presence of these mysterious men, but I was certain I had seen in the taxi, the figure which had raised itself evidently to look at me, and had been back with every evidence of quick alarm upon the part of the first man.

The Tri-County Alliance of Alameda, San Francisco and Santa Clara

The following is an outline of the program:

10:30—Games.

11:30—Push ball; Alameda vs. San Francisco.

12:15—Basket lunch. Coffee and ice cream on sale.
1:45—Track meet.
5:00—Soccer; Alameda vs. San Francisco.
6:45—Fellowship hour.
Hayward league—Miss Margaret B. Null, representative, states that during the summer months their league has joined with the two Christian En-

Endeavor societies of Hayward in union services, using the Endeavor topics. After conference they will again resume their own meetings.

First Alameda — Central avenue and Oak street. Owing to the fact that this league has been on a vacation, a "reorganization party" was held at the church last Friday evening, being conducted by the Alliance officers. The league will now resume its regular work.

Epworth church—"Envy and Covetousness" was the league topic for last Sunday at Epworth church, Durant and Telegraph, Berkeley, which was presented by McCarthy Thornton. The leaguers enjoyed a vocal solo, "Deep River of Jordan," by Miss Esther Linsey. Friday evening, August 22, the league held an informal so-

Shattuck Avenue, Oakland—Last Sunday afternoon about thirty of the members of the Shattuck Avenue league conducted a service for the children of the Fred Finch orphanage. Much good is derived from these meetings, both by the children and the leaguers. The league meeting Sunday evening was in charge of Miss Clara Armes, the first vice president, and was in "Institute echo meeting." Representatives from Asilomar and Tahoe spoke, giving some very helpful thoughts along the lines of Elworth league methods.

First church, Okanogan, had a business meeting of the league held last Monday evening at the First church it was voted to hold a monthly social hour in the church before the league meeting. served at 6:30 by the Centennial leaguers. Lieut. Jesse A. Bergen, U. S. A., amused the crowd with his "Greetings." Robert Robertson, returned "y" secretary and former member of Centennial church, related a few of his experiences in his witty, "Scotch" way. "Bobby" certainly received an enthusiastic welcome. Roll call showed there were few leaguers not represented. The newly formed

League of First Church, Berkeley, with a membership of 16 and every one present, won the banner by a percentage of 86. Miss Esther Pollard gave a very sweet contralto solo. The address of the evening, by Rev. George W. White, D. D., superintendent of the San Francisco district, was timely, being, "Reaping the Harvest." Dr. White has a large place in the hearts of many of the day leaguers, who were pleased to have the privilege of hearing him again. The officers of the Alameda County Alliance of Epworth Leagues are as follows: Walter W. Sandholt, president; L. F. Rothenhoefer, first vice president; Miss Ina Gregg, second vice president; Miss Panthea Harrod, third vice president; Harold P. Baldwin, fourth vice president; Miss Ruth A. Wastell, sec-

Chairman: M. R. McFerrin, treasurer: Miss Elsie B. McKenzie, Junior league superintendent: Harold Rader, press reporter: C. M. Gass, chorister.

STAGE ALL SET FOR GREAT NAVAL PARADE

DANIELS DUE TOMORROW; BIG FLEET MONDAY

Famous Old Battleship Now
Anchored Off Marina; 51
Of Uncle Sam's Sea Fighters
Will Enter the Golden Gate

The famous old battleship Oregon, built at the Union Iron Works, with a war record known throughout the world, is anchored off the Marina. Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, accompanied by Mrs. Daniels, his two sons, Rear Admirals Park McKean and Hinton, and Captain Fox, will arrive in San Francisco tomorrow night at 10 o'clock. Admiral Rodman, with his crew of 1,000, will sail from Monterey tomorrow at 12 p. m. and from anchor off Bolinas Point. So is the stage set for the most gorgeous naval spectacle that the Pacific coast has ever known.

In honor of a naval guard of honor and a citizen's escort committee will arrive at the Palace Hotel at 9:30 Monday morning, to lead Secretary Daniels and his official party to Pier 11, where they will embark for the battleship Oregon, which will be the Secretary's flagship. Orders have been given that the U. S. S. Prairie to steam into the harbor ahead of the fleet and to become an auxiliary review ship, accommodating the distinguished guests whom the Oregon could not receive.

Fifty-one warships will enter the Golden Gate in single column formation and pass in review as near the hour of 11 o'clock on Monday as tide and weather conditions will permit. In the lead will be the flagship, the Oregon, followed by the six dreadnoughts, in order, Mississippi, Idaho, Wyoming, Arkansas, New York and Texas, followed by the pre-dreadnoughts, Nebraska, Georgia and Vermont and the cruisers, North Carolina and South Carolina. The light cruisers, Birmingham will lead the destroyer force.

At the time passes ahead of the Oregon they will unite in the salute of thirteen guns to the Secretary of the navy. The Oregon will reply with the admiral's salute of seven-gun salute.

The throngs gathered on the Marina will catch their first view of the approaching fleet at 10 o'clock, according to the tentative schedule of Captain Rodman.

Various boats along the Marina have been taken out upon the water to catch a near view of the review. The Panama Pacific Exposition directors announced the prize of $100,000 for the best view of the fleet.

At the same time the public not to enter the wharves or buildings within an area as they were in a highly dangerous condition. For Vinland, San Francisco, Baker and Miles will be closed and all boats to the harbor will be closed.

Auto Thief Escapes After Chase, Crash

San Francisco, Aug. 30.—Every body is being made today of all the hospitals in Oakland and doctors are being questioned by the police in an effort to find out the whereabouts of a man who escaped, following a sensational race and a crash, from the police, and is believed to have been injured in an accident near Leona Heights.

Racing with a stolen automobile, the thief came to grief when his car was ditched in the hills. The chase started at 10 o'clock, when a patrolman, Henry Nelson, started in pursuit. Chasing about on the hill roads the fugitive outdistanced the police machine, and near the Leona quarry he crashed through the fence and into the ditch. The fugitive jumped from the car and fled. The machine bore several plates of a car stolen from the Columbia Buick in San Francisco several weeks ago.

SPECIAL TICKET BOOTHS

In order to facilitate the movement of the expected large crowds who will view the entrance of the Pacific Fleet into San Francisco Bay, the Keeney has arranged for extra ticket booths and ticket sellers at Key Division stations and passengers are requested to purchase tickets at these booths before boarding trains.

This additional service is furnished for the convenience of the patrons and it is further suggested that tickets for the return trip be purchased at the same time in order to avoid the rush of returning sight-seers at the San Francisco Ferry Station.

For the convenience of our regular commuters, the September commutation books will also be on sale at these special ticket offices.

TERMINAL RAILWAYS

W. R. Alberger, Vice Pres. of the Mar. —Advertisement

SUGGESTIONS TO PASSENGERS

On San Francisco Fleet Day, September 1st, travel from East Bay points to San Francisco will be very heavy.

By order of the Government, ferry boat service must be discontinued during the passage of the fleet between 11:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. In order to accommodate our patrons desiring to take the entrance of the Pacific Fleet into San Francisco Bay, this company will operate extra trains and boats to San Francisco on September 1st beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning.

We recommend and urge our patrons to take the extra trains for San Francisco and avoid the rush.

Y MOTOR FLEET TO HAUL SAILORS

An informal dance and program on Monday afternoon will open the celebration of the fleet's arrival. The Young Men's Christian Association is called upon. Every half hour between 9:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m., light-sewing buses, loaded with tugs will leave the Navy Yard on the Embarcadero and the "Y" building at 220 Golden Gate Avenue on sight seeing, personally conducted tours about the peninsula. Association men and girls will accompany the fleet. It is estimated by George C. Foster, social director of the Western Division of the National War Work Council, that over 1000 men a day will be handled by these specially chartered "rubber neck" wagons. Special cards of invitation to the guests. The big fleet of motor cars was put into commission today.

LA FOLLETTE IS ON FOURTH DAY OF ONE SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Talk doesn't mean much to Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin. Today he started on the fourth day of a running speech in the senate.

For parliamentary purposes, Senator La Follette is speaking in opposition to the oil land leasing bill. Actually, he is giving the galleries a lot of natural history, some ancient history and a great deal of future history.

BANDITS HOLD UP BAR AND PATRONS

After holding up fifteen men in the Melrose Winery, a bar at 915 Fifth-street, robbing the place and customers of $125 in cash, and making their escape by automobile, three bandits are being sought by the police today. The bandits are believed to be members of the same gang that robbed the Hartman jewelry store in Emeryville, and captured by automobile, while only three men were seen in the Melrose Winery. The bandits are believed to have acted as lookouts, as was done in the Emeryville robbery.

The men entered the place shortly after 10 o'clock, while the bar was crowded with neighboring workmen. Ordering the customers into a billiard room at the rear of the bar, they lined the men against the wall, two men holding revolvers on them while the third went through the pockets of the victims. They then went through the cash register. Money in the safe was not disturbed. A quick dash for the door, and escaped in the waiting auto, when the victims saw they heard nothing while the holdup was in progress.

The Emeryville robbery occurred in the same method. The robbers entering the place, limited the patrons to the billiard table, and escaping in a waiting machine. In this case five men worked the robbery, two being stationed outside as lookouts. The recent robbery of the Chinese lottery place on Webster street, in Alameda, near the Bethlehem shipyard, is also believed to have been the work of the same gang. The men wore masks, and only a partial description was obtained from the victims.

"FLEET DAY" OFFICIAL HOLIDAY MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Mayor John L. Davis issued a proclamation declaring a half holiday Wednesday afternoon, September 3d, the day on which Oakland will welcome the officers and men of the Pacific fleet. The mayor also calls upon the downtown property owners to decorate their buildings in a manner that will do full justice to the occasion. The mayor's proclamation follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF OAKLAND—That real American spirit that has prevailed throughout the days when the clouds of war threatened our states, the Pacific fleet on next Wednesday, September 3d.

It is only fitting and proper that our city, like sister cities, should close the doors of our offices, stores and factories, and I do now ask that those doors within the gates of our city be closed from 12 noon on that day.

It is further urged that all homes, factories and office buildings be profusely decorated. Other cities of the coast have become a mass of color for their fleet days. Therefore, let Oaklanders everywhere, not forgetting that real American spirit that has prevailed throughout the days when the clouds of war threatened our states, the Pacific fleet on next Wednesday, September 3d.

There are many things that Oakland will gain from this great day—namely: A golden opportunity to prove to the naval heads that ours is the ideal site for the huge naval base to be established on this coast; a chance to show to officers and men of the Pacific fleet that Oakland stands for the best of the far-flung western hospitality; and, furthermore, to adequately play host to the thousands upon thousands of Californians who will throng to Oakland and the bay districts.

To Whom It May Concern:
I wish to state that for over 10 years I have been troubled with liver and stomach disorders. I have been submitted to an operation with no result.

I began treatments with Dr. Sing
Herb Company, and after a few weeks I feel much better. I have lost many kinds of food I could not eat before.

It is 4 months since I have been treated and have had no return of the same.

DATE SET FOR
CLINIC CENTER
FUND DRIVE

Dr. Daniel Crosby, health officer of the city of Oakland, will set the date for the campaign which will be launched September 22 for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of a site and erection of a building for the Alameda County Health Center. A thorough canvass will be made for support in the permanent establishment of the institution. The executive committee which is outlining the publicity and financial campaign which will be carried on, is composed of Dr. Crosby, William C. Anderson, Walter D. Cole, A. E. Anderson, Joseph H. Kipp, Magnus Anderson, Herman Johnston and Charles C. Shook.

By a consideration of former applications to perform health work for the county, the board of supervisors have appropriated the sum of $2,000 for the maintenance of the health center, which will administer their services to all outpatients who would otherwise be cared for at the County hospital. By the amendment of the health center, it is hoped that the cost of care will be reduced.

The Alameda County Health Center had its inception in the fall of 1915 when a group of leading physicians and surgeons met at Hotel Oakland to discuss the need for a health center. The group included Dr. Daniel Crosby, health officer, and Dr. J. H. Kipp, surgeon. The group decided to form a health center, which would administer their services to all outpatients who would otherwise be cared for at the County hospital. By the amendment of the health center, it is hoped that the cost of care will be reduced.

When a health center is established, it will be a great benefit to the community. It will provide a place where patients can receive medical attention without the expense of a hospital. It will also provide a place where patients can receive medical attention without the expense of a hospital.

U. S. CERTIFICATES
ACCEPTED AT PAR

Under what conditions certificates of public health will be accepted by the United States government in payment of income and estate taxes for the year 1918, and for the year 1919, was decided by the board of health officers of the city of Oakland, which met on August 28.

The board of health officers of the city of Oakland, which met on August 28, decided that certificates of public health will be accepted by the United States government in payment of income and estate taxes for the year 1918, and for the year 1919, under the following conditions:

1. The certificate must be issued by a health officer of a city or county in the United States.

2. The certificate must be issued for the year 1918, or for the year 1919.

3. The certificate must be issued for the purpose of certifying that the holder thereof is a resident of the city or county in which it was issued.

Renters to Hold Mass Meeting
Laying Plans for a Legal Fight

A mass meeting of apartment house tenants and other renters of Oakland will be held next week to form an association and plan legal action to combat rent increases, today announced Mrs. John Matthews, 2041 Harrison street, leader in the "renters' defense" movement.

Efforts were being made today to get the city's permission to use the municipal auditorium for the gathering, which is planned for an evening hour on the 30th, after Easter Sunday, which will be Wednesday.

"We are planning to have a mass meeting, probably one of four hundred speakers," said Mrs. Matthews, who is the wife of a consulting engineer in the shipyards. "Then we will discuss the situation of renters to represent us in taking the case against the Apartment House Owners' association into court. We want to be sure we get the right lawyers and that everyone has a voice in their defense."

As a result of the publication in the TRIBUNE of the part in the renters' defense move, I have received many telephone calls from tenants who have expressed the fact that they are with us, heart and soul. Many of them said they did not desire to give their names yet, but that they would be found on hand when the time came for action."

The situation was complicated in the case of Mrs. Mabel Hoffman, who has been in the city for some time. She was arrested a few days ago by Superior Judge T. W. Harris, who awarded her $200 a month in damages for her conduct. She was arrested a few days ago by Superior Judge T. W. Harris, who awarded her $200 a month in damages for her conduct.

WEILER AGAIN
FACES POLICE
COURT CHARGE

Held to answer to the superior court on one count of writing threatening letters, Ray John G. Weiler will face another police court hearing in connection with the alleged "TNT" notes to Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Peterson and prominent California officials and others, which the superior court said in the case.

The charges on which Weiler was held to answer to the superior court were written by Captain Peterson, one of the letters threatening the police court with death if he persisted in arresting I. W. Weiler. The first letter was received by a cousin of Peterson, and two others by the police executive directly.

In these cases, however, the Oakland authorities are not interested in the writing on these letters and Weiler's writing were compared before these charges were made.

U. C. Students
Who Earn Own
Way Given Work

BERKELEY, Aug. 30.—Through the efforts of the University of California employment bureau nearly 600 male students have been placed in positions which will enable them to earn funds to defray their college expenses.

Half of the positions were for persons willing to wait on table in exchange for their room and board. The others present a wide variety of part-time jobs.

Other openings for college men are still sought by the employment office, and all employers having work to offer energetic students desirous of paying their own way through the state university have been asked to either call or telephone to the bureau in Room 103, California Hall.

FIVE CAUGHT
IN GAS FUMES
ON U. S. SHIP

VALLEJO, Aug. 30.—Trapped in the engine hold of the submarine chaser "No. 205" on its recent spin down the bay, and nearly asphyxiated by gas fumes from a leaking exhaust in the powerful engine of the vessel, five men are today recovering from having been "gassed" in the hold. When the power in the vessel seemed erratic, officers investigated to find the engine room crew unconscious, and nearly dead. The men in the engine hold were H. E. Hubbell, G. Reed, L. T. McIntyre, A. B. Thompson, and A. L. Thompson, who had been attending to the machinery. They were found in the engine hold, and were taken to the hospital.

The "gassed" men were hurried to the hospital for first aid, and later taken to the hospital. All are expected to recover, and they have been found for a few minutes they would have been killed, physicians say. Reports have been made and the engine hold is now safe, according to the ship's mechanics.

Jingle Jolts

(By Harry E. Westgate)

My neighbor is a kindly man, and square as a square can be, but when it comes to politics we simply can't agree; he has his own opinions, and he swears I'm in the wrong, and when we get to mixing it we go it pretty strong.

I try to prove that profiteers have got us in a boat, that they are simply gouging us and have us by the throat, and then he starts to flare, and goes so alford mad, he hock, it makes him rear and rear.

He takes a slam at Red-bellies, and Socialists as well, and where he'd have them hatched make a rhyme with apple-jolly; he thinks the profiteers have it, just as honest as can be, and so each time I call on him we always disagree.

But what's the use of him if he no suffer when we think, if no one made a kick or two would soon be on the blink; George Washington wouldn't and he did the proper thing, and didn't mind his words at all in speaking of the king.

RICH RAIMENT IS WITHOUT OWNER

Two thousand dollars' worth of garments and furs, some of which were in a store-room at 202 Twenty-eighth street, Oakland, and no one in the establishment knows to whom they belong, is the story of a mystery.

At the same time, in more than a score of Oakland homes, these same articles are missing.

Vanishing owners' and "various" articles, affected two mysteries, both involving the same clothes.

Coats, dresses, blouses, suits, broadcloths, crisp and spotted, were the property of the missing articles.

Mrs. A. Wilson, 202 Twenty-eighth street, was the first to begin unraveling the situation. She went to the police and she is glad she did.

Yesterday, she said, she had given a plush coat and a favorite dress to a man named Martin who promised to return them "better than new."

Neither Martin nor the garments came back.

The police traced the missing clothes to a store-room at 1241 East Twelfth street, formerly a cleaning and dyeing establishment. In the window was a card of directions to the new home of the missing clothes.

The management showed the police officers into a room thickly hung with furs, from mink to fox, and from ermine to sable. It is said there was no record of the missing articles.

YOUNG BANDIT
FATALLY SHOT
BY POLICEMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—John Carr, 19 years old, alleged bandit, is slain at the Alameda County Emergency hospital following an early morning battle with the police. Investigation is being made on both sides of the case, and Carr was shot together with a search for his companion, who is said to be in Oakland.

Carr was shot by Policeman Thomas J. Peery, in a gun battle with the two men in the chair hotel, 1729 O'Farrell street. The other man, known as "Bill" escaped. Carr was shot in the chest and the emergency hospital, and the man in the chair hotel was shot and taken to San Francisco to receive medical attention.

Peery surprised the two in the corridor of the hotel, attempting to gain entrance to the room of 1729 O'Farrell street. As the police approached the two men, Carr and the other man, they both started to run. ## HUSBAND HIT BY LEADER IN SOCIETY HERE

Mrs. Betty H. Norris Declares
Spouse Dissipates Money Received From Estate of Late Card Manufacturer

Asserting that her husband, Jos. H. Norris, San Francisco insurance broker, refuses to maintain her properly, although receiving a steady income of $300 monthly, Mrs. Betty H. Norris, 472 Vernon street, filed suit for separate maintenance yesterday. Both husband and wife are widely known in Alameda county and transbay society.

According to Sterling Carr, attorney for Mrs. Norris, the society matron brought suit only after repeated efforts to bring about an understanding with her husband failed. Carr said that the plaintiff had pleaded with Norris for some time to give up alleged idle habits, dissipation and profligacy, only to meet with additional behavior of that kind.

Norris' income, according to Carr, comes from part of an estate left by his father, a wealthy cardboard manufacturer in the east. This estate was left originally to Norris' mother, according to Carr, but he and other children contested the case in court, eventually obtaining an outside compromise. At this time enough money was set aside for Norris, said Carr, to provide $200 monthly for his needs, in a life annuity.

Mrs. Norris, Carr said, repeatedly asked her husband to leave the matrimonial path, but got only temporary relief. Norris allegedly fell into the old way of living once more, and Mrs. Norris had but two months left for her, according to Carr—either to apply for guardianship papers over the monthly income or to sue for separate maintenance. After much debating she chose the latter course.

Mrs. John Gable, a daughter to the Norris, and also widely known in Alameda county society, is now at her summer home in the Lake Tahoe region.

U. of C. Girl Is Only Fifteen Years of Age

MISS NETTLETON WHITNEY

BERKELEY, Aug. 30.—Claiming the distinction of being the youngest member of the freshmen class at the University of California this year, Miss Nettleton Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Whitney of Berkeley, has begun her college studies at the age of fifteen, a record in university annals.

Little Miss Whitney goes to college fully accredited in every study. She was a graduate of the summer class at the Berkeley high school, where she was an honor student. At the university she is registered in the college of letters and sciences, where she will have finished her work at an age where the average student is just beginning a college career.

To personal attention on the part of her mother, in addition to her regular school studies, does Miss Whitney give credit for her remarkable record. Mrs. Whitney has two younger daughters, both of whom she is preparing to enter college at the same age of her eldest daughter. One will enter the university next June and the other the following year.

Miss Whitney, the university's youngest co-ed, is a member of a prominent Berkeley family residing at 1421 Hawthorne terrace, the Whites having made their home in the college city for the last thirty-five years.

Celebrated Star Appears For First Time on Stage or Screen as an American Girl.

The incomparable Nazimova in her newest and greatest screen production, "The Brat," is the extraordinary attraction looked for presentation at the American Theatre the week commencing Sunday, September 7. This new screen triumph of the distinguished Russian star is a re-titling of Maude Fulton's celebrated stage play and presents Nazimova in a role entirely different from any other she has previously portrayed. In "The Brat" Alla Nazimova appears for the first time on stage or screen as an American girl. Her

PURVEYORS OF OBSCENITY TO LAND IN JAIL

Council Adopts Ordinance to Restrainers on Street Corners
From Offending Passersby
With Foul Language

"Beware loose jest, or stories rough:
Ye all know old Chief Lynch's rough!"
—The Lay of the Last Snuitchism.

When you think of a brand new joke that doesn't happen to be just a parlor story—and a friend comes along who you think would appreciate it, don't tell him!

They'll be able to "pinch you" for it.

And, what's more to the point—they will.

For the "bad language ordinance," drawn up by Commissioner F. E. Morse, and providing for arrests for the violation in any public place of the use of words of said nature, has been passed by the city council. And Chief of Police J. E. Lynch, who says he never swears himself, is going to enforce it.

While the law was framed at the suggestion of Judge George Samuelson, primarily to stifle the showing of indecent moving pictures, of the use of such pictures in "peeposcopes" and the use of indecent photographs or public photographs, the law in fact covers any objectionable sentiments offered by the human voice.

SNUITCHISM MEANS JAIL.
Snuitchism's over clear store corners mean jail.

The naughty little ditties college boys sometimes sing in the back room of a refreshment emporium mean the wrath of the law.

A fast story over a clear store corner or a loud laugh mean twenty days. A naughty quip on a vaudeville stage—or it's naughty enough to arouse the chief of police, the city's official censor, may land a jail term.

The new law provides for a fine of $500 or any part thereof, or a jail term, or both, at the discretion of the judge. Judge Samuelson framed the law after exhibiting an objectionable picture escaped with what he thought was a small fine, because there was no law covering a greater penalty.

There's been a law of the kind, I believe, for a long time, said Commissioner W. J. Baccus, "but no one has ever enforced it. I don't know what this one is, pretty stringent."

BLACKGUARDS GO TO JAIL.
The new law will be in effect next week and Lynch promises immediate arrests.

"It won't be as harsh as it sounds," said Lynch. "We'll use common sense. But when a man is talking bad language all over the place—he's going to jail now."

Man Thrown From Auto; Then Jailed

Attempting to board the running board of an automobile as it rounded the corner at Fifteenth and Broadway last evening, "Pete" Terence, a drunken loafer, was thrown to the pavement and badly bruised. He was removed to the receiving hospital for repairs, whereupon his sobriety was questioned. Thence he was locked up in the city prison on a charge of "drunkenness."

The machine was driven by H. H. Marshall, 2914 Manilla avenue.

Eastern Officer in City for Prisoner

Chief of Inspectors Walter Almond of the New Bedford, Mass., police arrived in Oakland today to take custody of Leon Azecov, who was arrested in Oakland on warrants charging desertion and grand larceny.

According to the officer, Azecov stole $300 from an acquaintance in New Bedford before leaving for California. He was followed here by 19-year-old Helen Andrews, his alleged affinity.

HURT IN COLLISION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Joseph Walde, 3227 King street, Berkeley, was seriously injured when a woman he was driving for the Metropolitan Laundry company was struck at 15th and Vermont streets, by a United Fruit car. Walde and his helper, Irving Troch, 275 Rimpay street, was also injured. They were removed to the Mission Emergency Hospital.

LANDLORDS TO REDUCE RENTS, SAYS OFFICIAL

Louis Aber, President of the Alameda County Association,
Declares Body Has Not
Endorsed Rate Advances

Steps will be taken by the Alameda County Apartment Housekeepers' association itself to reduce rents, said Louis Aber, president, in replying yesterday to the announced intention of a tenants' defense club to bring court action to prevent rate increases.

At the same time, Mrs. John Matthews, leader in the tenants' movement, said that she was informed four more large apartments in Oakland would raise their rate September 1, tomorrow.

Already the Apartment Housekeepers' association has applied to the state railroad commission for a cut in telephone rates for apartments, which recently was raised from $1.50 to $2.75 a month, Aber said.

A committee also has been named by the association to try to reduce the boost recently given to rates for garbage removal, he said.

SLASHES HOPED FOR.

If these slashes and a few others can be made in operating expenses, rates should be kept down, he declared.

"I do not see how any action in court against this association can stand as the association has not endorsed rate increases," Aber asserted. "I want to repeat what has been said before, that we have not raised rates as an association, and I can add that I am just as opposed as anyone else to any apartment housekeeper who profiteers."

"Six different apartment housekeepers have come to me recently and asked what I thought their rates should be. I told them that I couldn't help them, if they didn't know their own business they should get a public accountant to figure it out for them."

"Leaving apartments that raise not beyond legitimate limits are all right, but what some of the little fellows do is beyond me."

The tenants cannot brush lightly aside the matter of increased cost of operation. "This morning I bought a dozen towels and they cost me 80 cents more a dozen than the last I bought a few weeks ago. It now costs as much to replace silverware as it formerly did to buy it new. The minimum wage law for women goes into effect soon and I have to raise the pay of two maids in my apartment."

RENTERS' CAMPAIGN.

Mrs. Matthews said that she is receiving many offers of support in her campaign to beat the alleged "rent gouger," and that there promises to be a large attendance at the end of the week. An effort is being made to obtain the municipal auditorium for this gathering. Some well known "four minute" speakers will be invited to make a short talk in the gathering, Mrs. Matthews said.

Mrs. Matthews began her work against the tenants early last week when notices were received of large increases in the apartment house rent. Her rent was raised from $45 to $57.50, to become effective October 1.

Tenants in the small apartment houses of the city have been in the reader to help in this movement, and are hoping that the occupants of the larger and more expensive apartments also will aid. Mrs. Matthews said, "Of course, I suppose there have more money to spend on the rent, but at the same time they should realize that they are doing themselves harm by not protesting at the exorbitant new rates."

G. A. Stromgren is Summoned by Death

Following a brief illness, G. A. Stromgren, local business man, 265 Twenty-ninth street, died yesterday at his home. He was in the planetary business in this city for many years, and is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mrs. Minnie Ingels, Mrs. Lina Richter and Mrs. Clara Mores, and a son, G. A. Stromgren. He was 64 years old.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of Alcatraz Lodge of Masons, of which he was a member, at the Alcatraz Masonic Temple, Seventh and Park streets.

Freed From Prison, is Arrested Again

As he stepped to freedom out of the gates of San Quentin after serving a two years' sentence, Charles Marshall alias George Thorpe was seized by Officer E. C. Summers of the Oakland police and shipped under arrest on the charge that he had escaped from a chain gang in Oakland in August, 1916.

Marshall was a trusty and was serving a term on a conviction of petty larceny charge. He was sentenced in San Francisco and sent to San Quentin soon after his escape.

Notice to Commuters

Owing to the large number of passengers that we will be required to carry, due to the arrival of the Pacific Fleet, monthly commutation tickets will not be offered for sale on the trains at that date.

Commutation tickets will be on sale for the remainder of this week at all major stations and on all key division trains.

A special detail of trainmen will be assigned the time to see and serve passengers on Saturday, August 30th, and Sunday, August 31st. Inconvenience and delay commuters are requested to purchase their September books in advance of Saturday. He was sentenced in San Francisco and sent to San Quentin soon after his escape.

Warm Spell, Lasting Two Weeks, an Eruption or Two and a Few Quakes on September Bill

Prof. Albert F. Porta Predicts An Early Hot Wave.

By Prof. Albert F. Porta.

The planetary phenomena occurring in September will be as follows:

A. Sept. 2—Opposition of Venus with Saturn.

B. Sept. 14—Conjunction of Mercury with Mars.

C. Sept. 14—Conjunction of Mercury with Jupiter.

D. Sept. 16—Conjunction of Mercury with Neptune.

E. Sept. 16—Conjunction of Mercury with Saturn.

F. Sept. 27—Opposition of Mercury with the Earth.

Castling a glance on this list and recalling to mind the principles revealed in my preceding papers concerning the direct and constant conjunction of the planetary events with all kind of terrestrial disturbances, we will see that the Opposition A, the Conjunction C, E, and the opposition F will be most powerful agents of electro-magnetic energy during the month.

Curiously analyzing each of these and performing the proper calculation we will detect that the spot of Venus will be central in the rear of the sun, and therefore, both of them turning concentrically around the solar axis, will force the warm spell to endure for about 15 days without breaking off.

And while the aforementioned sunset of Venus will be central in the rear of the sun, and therefore, both of them turning concentrically around the solar axis, will force the warm spell to endure for about 15 days without breaking off.

But the opposition A will be the only planetary phenomenon responsible for such a warm period, because also the solar spots of Venus will be central in the rear of the sun, and therefore, both of them turning concentrically around the solar axis, will force the warm spell to endure for about 15 days without breaking off.

Another high range of temperature will similarly be produced on the Pacific coast, during the third week of September, by the opposition of Venus with Jupiter, occurred on August 12, and the conjunctions of Venus with Uranus and Venus with the Earth, respectively occurring in September 1 and 12.

EXPECTS SCATTERED SHOWERS.
And these warm waves will inconspicuously constitute the homage which nature will pay to our glorious mariners during their lucky permanence in San Francisco.

But the effects of the sunspots produced by the conjunction of Mercury with the Earth and Uranus (respectively occurred on August 15 and 16), and the opposition of Mercury with Saturn (occurred on August 18) will in some extent, alter the weather conditions in September, in producing scattered showers and thunderstorms at points of California slope.

The most remarkable among the volcanic eruptions occurring in September will probably be that produced by the aforementioned opposition of Venus with Saturn, during the first and third week of September. At that time Venus, the mercurial planet, after having been successively in conjunction and in opposition with Jupiter, Jupiter, Neptune and Uranus in August, will be in opposition with Saturn and the Earth, respectively, on September 2 and 12.

This peculiar planetary Saturnian event will be at sight from September 9 to 22, after having passed the Earth.

Jeff says he was born in Zanesville, Ohio, where Bud Fisher was born. He says he raised Bud and taught him to fish. One day when they were fishing Bud said to him, "Jeff, you and I are going to be famous."

Fisher was beginning to draw. "Maybe it is true that he had in mind the idea of drawing Jeff in the strip. Maybe he did not. Anyway that is the tradition, and if it is repeated often enough maybe Bud will acknowledge it."

Jeff hasn't always been old, though there are few in Oakland who can remember when he was otherwise. He says he knew Lincoln, Grant and Garfield and General Meade. He knows so many names that he can't remember them all.

Time was when he was a jockey, when he was a prize fighter, when he played base ball. That was half a century ago.

Now his chief claim to fame is his buttons. He has a button for everything. Hundreds of buttons adorn his coat and room, badges of every sort. He says they all belong to him, that when Bud was a boy he had more buttons than any boy in Zanesville. Jeff has collected the buttons and badges for Bud, and when he dies he is going to leave them in his will to his old friend, "Jeff's" real name is Joshua Ward.

Flowers for "Little Jeff." He is the little fellow who has for an age cradled his papers as he walked down the street, laboring under his top hat and weight of buttons, is going to the county hospital. He applied to Stanford Frank Davidson last night, for admission.

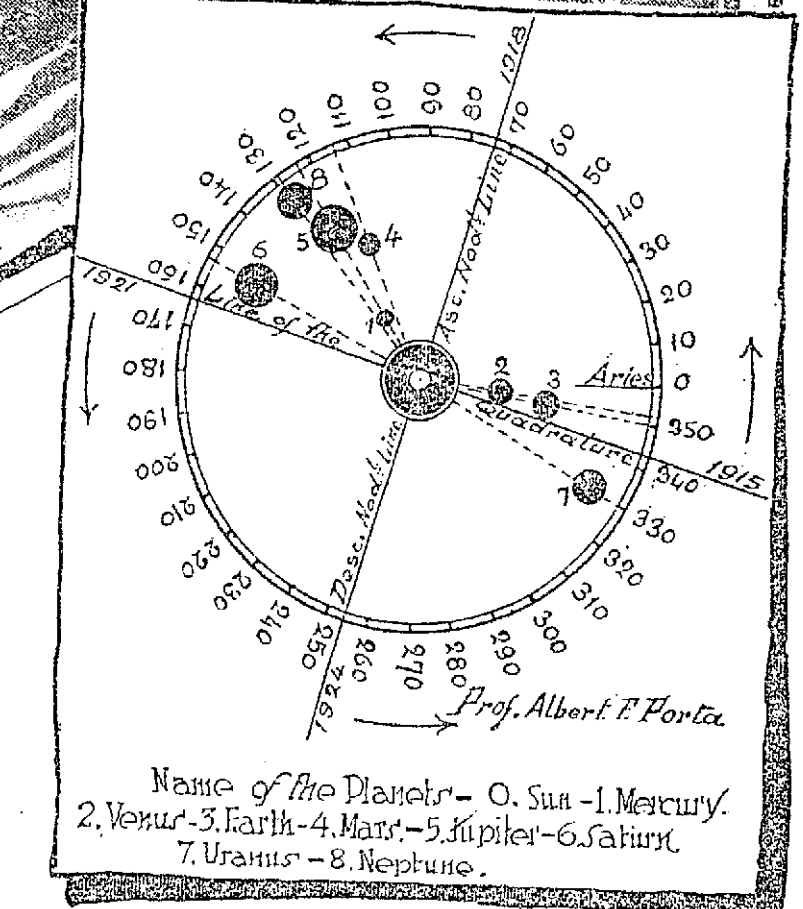

"I think a little rest would do me good," he said, "and maybe a little medicine."

They made out his application and he is going out there and rest and get fed up and recuperate. If he likes it out there maybe he will stay, for all there the boys will not mind him with the one name that he hates, that makes him so mad he could almost do murder.

Anyway, he is getting old. To last January, and it is with increasing difficulty that he walks over the long road to his few customers. He would like a little luxury, and maybe the county hospital will prove luxurious. Just now he says he is going to take a "little rest," but even so, it may prove a long rest.

"Little Jeff" is one of the best known characters of old Oakland. There is no one who does not know him. He is pointed out from the "rubberneck wagons" to the tourists if good fortune brings him to the street as the wagon goes by. He is known from end to end of the country as the original of "Little Jeff" of the comics, whether he is the original or not. That is a debated question.

FERRY RATES OF S. P. MAY BE DEFEATED

City Attorney Hagan Declares
Clause in Franchise Will Protect Patrons; "Trick"
Play Made at Last Minute

The Oakland city council will decide Tuesday whether it will fight in the courts the higher ferry rates to be put in effect on the Southern Pacific system tomorrow.

Both the Key Route and the Southern Pacific will raise fares from 11 cents to 15 cents, beginning tomorrow morning. As the Key Route has permission from the State Railroad Commission for its increase the municipality probably will not combat it, but the Southern Pacific, under Federal control, held it did not need this concession.

According to City Attorney H. L. Hagan, the situation is not the same on the Key Route as on the Southern Pacific, and just because one has been granted the increase is no reason the other should be.

As an interstate carrier, the Southern Pacific has receipts from a much wider system and the ferry rates are not as important to it as to the Key Route, is the contention of Hagan.

TOO LATE FOR INJUNCTION.
Both systems will charge $4 for monthly commutation books instead of the present $2.20, and the increase on individual fares will go into effect on the first ferries tomorrow morning after daylight, not the "tow" ferries after midnight tonight.

"The matter is entirely up to the council," said Hagan, "but we have a provision in the franchises under which the Southern Pacific operating which provides for regulation of rates and I believe this will give the city council the legal right to act in the matter."

PREDICTS VICTORY.
"It might be that this will be questioned, in view of government ownership, but I believe off-hand that the city can successfully resist the raise. I will make a full report on the legal status of the matter at Tuesday's council meeting."

The original Southern Pacific fares in Oakland were lowered 10 cents to meet competition, said Mayor John L. Davis, "back in the old days when I started my ferry line." The State provisions are that rates lowered to meet competition cannot be raised and this precedent has been established in attempts to raise the Creek Route ferry rate. I believe that the same position cannot be conceived that even the Railroad Administration can violate State laws. At any rate, we will throw it out in council Tuesday."

The ferry rates were increased from 10 to 12 cents after the government assumed control of the railroads. In his petition for a further increase, the Key Route submitted figures showing heavy losses and in answer the contest the State commission argued that it should reorganize, in order to prevent further losses, which it said the increase on the ferries would not overcome.

W. L. Scott, Portland manager for the Southern Pacific, issued a statement yesterday in which he said that the Southern Pacific also has been operating its ferries at a heavy loss. "Therefore, the 'odd penny' goes out of style tomorrow on both systems."

Well Known Couple of Alameda Wed

ALAMEDA, Aug. 30.—Miss Ruby L. Forrester and Theodore O. Leydecker were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Joseph Forrester, 1212 Regent street. Dr. H. D. THE TAX RATE AND ASSESSED VALUATIONS

County Assessor I. H. Clay Tells Oakland Real Estate Board About the Relations Between These Elements

Real Estate Board Has Active Season Planned and Drive for New Members is On, Meeting With Big Success

The Oakland Real Estate Board has worked out a line of fall and winter activities that is in keeping with the development in the real estate market. A membership drive is on, and it is proposed to hold a series of bi-weekly luncheons that will discuss matters of importance to the real estate business.

County Assessor Clay told the fifty members of the board that the real estate market is in a position to take a big jump in the fall. He said that the assessed valuation of the city is $1,000,000,000, and that the tax rate is 1.5 percent.

Clay said that the assessed valuation of the city is $1,000,000,000, and that the tax rate is 1.5 percent. He said that the assessed valuation of the city is $1,000,000,000, and that the tax rate is 1.5 percent.

OPENING SALE OF CHEVROLET PARK TRACT A SUCCESS AND A TEST OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

Scenes in Chevrolet Park, the sale of which by the Realty Syndicate, is regarded as a test of the real estate market by the owners of property, real estate dealers and the public generally. This tract was improved before the war times and was put on the market during the past week. Activity is already apparent on the tract.

One-Quarter of Chevrolet Park is Sold During the First Week

The opening of the sale of lots in Chevrolet Park on Sunday last, and the continuation of this sale today, marks the first opening of the real estate market in the city since the war broke. The Chevrolet Park is the largest tract that has been opened for sale since the war broke, and the offering of this tract means that the real estate market is beginning to open.

Clay then cited the case of Umatilla, Ne., which was assessed upon a 20 percent valuation but which had a tax rate of 1.5 percent as compared with Oakland, substantially of the same population, with an assessed valuation of 50 percent and a rate of 1.5 percent.

PACKERS STOCK TO EMPLOYEES

More than 20,000 employees of Swift & Company are today vested with part ownership in the packing concern. Announcement has just been made of the results that came of the gigantic profit sharing plan recently offered by the company to its people.

Stock which had been turned into the treasury some time ago afforded the company an opportunity which it had long sought to offer shares to employees at par. Accordingly, the stock subscription books were opened last May on the following plan:

Each employee earning up to $20 a week was allowed to purchase one share of stock at its par value, $100. The market quotation is much above this. Employees earning $20 and up to $30 a week were entitled to two shares, $20 and up to $40 a week three shares, $40 and up to $50 a week four shares, $50 and over five shares. No employee was allowed to purchase more than five shares. The stock as to be paid for at the rate of $1 a share per week.

LABOR NOTES FOREST PROBLEMS NOW LOOM LARGE

Reports from all sections of the country indicate renewed interest in forest problems, as the war has emphasized the importance of that industry. Foresters and lumbermen are taking hold of the problem at never before. It is pointed out, and many prominent writers are devoting much space to the subject.

It is reported that the Germans destroyed 1,500,000 acres of timber during the war, representing a value of $300,000,000. The timber needs of France are reported to be very great. Foresters of the United States to the number of approximately 20,000 are devoting their best energies to the solution of this problem. It is said, while the Canadians are also giving aid. The United States and Canada are both helping England in this respect as well as France.
